LEADERSHIP

W. ROCKWELL WIRTZ

CHAIRMAN

W. Rockwell "Rocky" Wirtz was named chairman of the Chicago Blackhawks and president of Wirtz Corporation on Oct. 5, 2007, following the passing of his father, William W. Wirtz, who served as president of the club for 41 years. In his role as chairman of the Blackhawks, he oversees all aspects of the club's operations with one goal in mind: winning a Stanley Cup championship.

When the Wirtz family purchased the Chicago Blackhawks in 1954, he was just two years old. "Rocky," as he is commonly called by family, friends and fans, grew up within the walls of the storied Chicago Stadium.

Along with the Blackhawks, Rocky's role as president of Wirtz Corporation extends to a vast array of businesses, including Wirtz Beverage Group, a leading national distributor of the world's top luxury and premium wine, spirits and beer brands. The company proudly represents those products in a growing list of markets that presently include Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Nevada and Wisconsin. The company, headquartered in Chicago, employs more than 3,000 professionals nationally. Wirtz Beverage Illinois is the state's leading wine and spirits distributor.

Rocky oversees Wirtz Realty which holds both commercial and residential properties, an insurance company and banks in Illinois and Florida. Wirtz is also the co-chairman of the Executive Committee of the United Center with Jerry Reinsdorf.

Continuing his family's commitment, Rocky is involved with numerous civic and charitable organizations as well as being active in fundraising endeavors.

His dedication and commitment to Chicago Blackhawk Charities is unwavering. Founded by his late father, Blackhawk Charities has donated millions of dollars to more than 20 organizations, including Amateur Hockey Association of Illinois, Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago, Chicago Children's Advocacy Center, National Runaway Switchboard, Dreams For Kids, Snow City Arts Foundation, Boys and Girls Clubs, Cathedral Shelter and more.

He currently serves as chairman of Wine and Spirits Wholesalers of America (WSWA), a national trade organization representing the wholesale tier of the wine and spirits industry. Rocky also serves on the Board of Trustees of the Field Museum and North Shore Country Day School in Winnetka, Illinois. He is also a former trustee of Loyola Academy in Wilmette, Illinois and a former trustee of Northwestern University where he established the Virginia Wadsworth Wirtz Endowment for Visiting Artists at Northwestern in honor of his grandmother.

Rocky earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Communications from Northwestern University in 1975. He and his wife, Marilyn, reside in the northern suburbs. He has three children: Daniel, Hillary and Kendall, one granddaughter, Rosemary. Marilyn has one daughter, Elizabeth.

JOHN McDONOUGH

PRESIDENT

John McDonough was named president of the Chicago Blackhawks on November 20, 2007. Under his guidance, in what Forbes Magazine has called the "The Greatest Sports-Business Turnaround Ever," the Blackhawks have moved quickly to revitalize the team's profile and re-energize its fan base.

Under McDonough's leadership, the Blackhawks became one of the biggest sports stories of the year, earning a coveted nomination for SportsBusiness Journal's 2009 Professional Sports Team of the Year. Entering the 2009-10 season, the Blackhawks have entertained 51 consecutive capacity crowds at the United Center and have grown a season ticketholder base from 3,400 to over 14,000 in under a year. For the first time in franchise history, the Blackhawks welcomed over 1,000,000 fans to the United Center during a single season in 2008-09 (1,052,261), while establishing an NHL club record by attracting a league-leading average of 21,783 to their 40 home dates at the United Center.

McDonough was also instrumental in bringing NHL 2009 Winter Classic to Chicago, a contest which matched up the Blackhawks and Detroit Red Wings in front of 40,818 fans at Wrigley Field on Jan. 1, 2009. The game drew an 11.8 overnight rating and a 21 share on NBC in Chicago and over 4.4 million U.S. viewers overall, making it the most-watched NHL game in almost 34 years, according to Nielsen Media Research.

Shortly after his arrival, the club welcomed back Blackhawks legends and Hall of Famers Bobby Hull, Stan Mikita and Tony Esposito as official team ambassadors and instituted the annual Blackhawks Convention, the first of its kind in the National Hockey League. In addition, in a landmark partnership with Comcast SportsNet and WGN Television, the Blackhawks announced that all 82 regular season games would be televised for the first time in franchise history in 2008-09. The Blackhawks also announced an exciting new radio partnership with arguably the most prominent call letters in North America as "The Voice of Chicago," News/Talk 720 WGN Radio.

Prior to joining the Blackhawks, McDonough served as president of the Chicago Cubs. During his tenure, the Cubs won the 2007 National League Central Division while setting an all-time franchise attendance record. As the Cubs chief, and in his previous role as senior vice president of marketing and broadcasting, he was widely viewed as a sports marketing and management innovator who played a major role in growing the Cubs' fan base and attracting sponsorships for one of the most successful pro sports franchises in America.

During his 24 years with the Cubs organization, the club consistently reached record attendance and revenue figures. In addition, McDonough was the architect of the celebrity "guest conductor" 7th inning stretch concept at Wrigley Field and created the annual Cubs Convention, which is now viewed as a prototype for professional team and league fan festivals.

With McDonough's many achievements have also come several honors and awards, including Major League Baseball's Marketing Excellence Award; the Chicago Baseball Veterans Committee Man of the Year; Chicago Baseball Executive of the Year; and America's Top Ten Marketing Executives by Promo Magazine.

He has also been recognized with the St. Mary's University Alumni Appreciation Award; the Bill Veeck Lifetime Achievement Award; the 2008 Executive of the Year Award by the Chicago chapter of the Public Relations Society of America; and was named to the Chicagoland Sports Hall of Fame in 2008.

McDonough sits on the Board of Governance at Notre Dame High School, the Advisory board of directors for the Illinois chapter of Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation International, the Faculty Advisory Board at Northwestern University for Master of Arts in Sports Administration, the National Hockey League Club Business Advisory Board and the National Hockey League Board of Governors.

A Chicago native, McDonough is a graduate of Notre Dame High School in Niles, Ill., and St. Mary's University in Winona, Minn. He currently resides in the Northwest suburbs with his wife, Karen. They have three children, Colleen, Ryan and Michael.

JAY BLUNK

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Jay Blunk enters his third season as the Chicago Blackhawks' senior vice president of business operations after joining the team on January 3, 2008.

A 22-year Chicago Cubs front office veteran, Blunk has engineered broad changes to the business landscape of the Blackhawks, adopting the general business philosophy of fan accessibility and bold, innovative strategies. In recognition of the teams' achievements, the Blackhawks earned a nomination for SportsBusiness Journal's 2009 Professional Sports Team of the Year.

In 2008-09, the Blackhawks became one of professional sports' biggest success stories, in what Forbes.com dubbed "arguably the most remarkable turnaround in the history of sports in the United States." During the 2008-09 season, the Blackhawks drew more than 1 million fans (1,052,261) for the first time in franchise history, set a league record by attracting an average of 21,783 fans to their 40 United Center contest and surpassed the franchise regular-season attendance record of 835,972. Dating back to the 2007-08 campaign, the Blackhawks have entertained 51 consecutive capacity crowds, the franchise's season ticket base has risen to more than 14,000 and merchandise sales have increased by 317 percent.

Blunk also worked in partnership with Blackhawks president John McDonough, Chicago Cubs officials and NHL officials to bring the NHL Winter Classic 2009 to Wrigley Field, an event which matched up the Blackhawks and Detroit Red Wings in front of 40,818 fans on January 1, 2009. The television broadcast of the game drew an 11.8 overnight rating and a 21 share on NBC 5 in Chicago and 4.4 million U.S. viewers overall, making it the most-watched NHL game in 34 years, according to Nielsen Media Research.

In his initial months with the Blackhawks, Blunk worked to secure the radio broadcast rights with new broadcast partner WGN News/Talk 720, in addition to working with the Hawks' marketing department in hiring Ogilvy as the team's new advertising agency and creating the Blackhawks Heritage Series, which honored Blackhawks greats throughout the season, achieving the overall business goal of building a bridge to the heritage of the franchise. Blunk also led sweeping changes across the Blackhawks' media channels, including the development of Blackhawks TV, the redesign of the Blackhawks' publications and chicagoblackhawks.com.

Blunk has overseen new concepts such as the Blackhawks Training Camp Festival, which includes the "Mad Dash to Madison" run and skate, 3-on-3 street hockey tournament and behind-the-scenes look at a Hawks practice. Blunk also developed first-of-their-kind cross-promotional partnerships with both the Chicago Cubs and White Sox, as well as a wealth of other civic organizations, which built the foundation for a 12-month-a-year marketing strategy.

During his tenure with the Cubs, Blunk held several marketing, sales, branding, promotions and advertising positions, the last of which was vice president in charge of marketing and broadcasting. He was responsible for the development of a wealth of promotional events over his more than two decades at Wrigley Field. Blunk was also a member of the Cubs organization when they drew over three million fans every season since 2003, setting the team's all-time record for attendance in 2007.

Blunk joined the Cubs after graduating from Illinois State University in 1986. He came to the Blackhawks after directing many of the Cubs' successful marketing strategies and is widely-viewed in the industry as an energetic sports marketing innovator.

Blunk serves on the Board of Directors for Chicago Blackhawk Charities, which supports programs and institutions throughout Illinois that work towards creating a better tomorrow for the youth of today. Blunk and his wife, Marci, have three children: Brandon, Maggie and Cameron.

STAN BOWMAN

GENERAL MANAGER

Stan Bowman was named the ninth General Manager in Blackhawks history on July 14, 2009. Prior to being named General Manager, Bowman served for eight years in the Blackhawks operations department, most recently as Assistant General Manager, Hockey Operations (2007-09).

Bowman and his father Scotty are part of an elite group, becoming just the seventh father-son GM tandem in the history of the National Hockey League.

Stan, 36, originally joined the Blackhawks in 2001, serving for four seasons as Special Assistant to the General Manager before being promoted to Director of Hockey Operations, a role he served in for two years (2005-07). In his most recent role as Assistant General Manager, Hockey Operations, Bowman attended to the day-to-day administration of the Blackhawks' hockey operations department with his primary responsibilities including all CBA-related matters such as contract negotiations, free agency, salary arbitration, player movement and player assignment. He also tracked the progress of the Blackhawks prospects by working closely with the staff of the club's minor league affiliate in Rockford, while also assisting with player evaluation, prospect development and professional and amateur scouting.

Bowman played an integral part in the recent major free agent signings of Marian Hossa, Tomas Kopecky and John Madden in 2009 and Brian Campbell and Cristobal Huet in 2008 while weighing in on the decision making that brought players such as Patrick Sharp, Kris Versteeg and Andrew Ladd to the club in trades.

Bowman graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1995 with degrees in Finance and Computer Applications. When he arrived at the Blackhawks in 2001, Bowman worked extensively on financial budgets and developing programs to track player movement and player evaluation. He was born in Montreal where his father, legendary National Hockey League fixture and Blackhawks Senior Advisor Scotty Bowman was coaching at the time.

Stan and his wife Suzanne have two sons, Will and Camden.

"We are excited to be bringing Kevin on board, his track record at the American Hockey League level is un-matched," said GM Stan Bowman. "Our organization is committed to winning and Kevin is the perfect addition to help us reach our ultimate goal of winning the Stanley Cup."

Cheveldayoff spent the previous 12 seasons as the general manager of the American Hockey League's Chicago Wolves, guiding the franchise to four league championships, which included the 2008 and 2002 AHL Calder Cups and 2000 and 1998 IHL Turner Cups. Overall, the Blaine Lake, Saskatchewan native has been a part of six league championships during his 15-year management career, which includes two Turner Cups in three seasons as the assistant vice president of hockey operations and assistant coach for the Denver and Utah Grizzlies (1995-96).

Cheveldayoff was the architect of 12 Wolves teams that compiled a .615 regular-season winning percentage (544-320-114) and ten postseason berths from 1997 to 2009. Eight of those clubs reached the 100-point mark during the regular season while earning four division titles and six postseason conference championships.

Originally drafted by the New York Islanders with their first pick (16th overall) in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft, Cheveldayoff began his career in the AHL with the Capital District Islanders, serving as the alternate captain from 1991 to 1993. He held the same role with the Salt Lake Golden Eagles in 1993-94, earning the team's "Unsung Hero Award" after racking up a career-high 216 penalty minutes in 73 games. Known as a defensive defenseman during his playing days, a knee injury cut his professional career short after five seasons.

JOEL QUENNEVILLE
HEAD COACH

Joel Quenneville enters his second season with the Blackhawks after being named the 37th head coach in franchise history on October 16, 2008. He originally joined the organization as a pro scout in September 2008.

In his first season as the Blackhawks' bench boss, Quenneville guided the team to its first playoff appearance since 2001, taking them all the way to the Western Conference Finals before losing in five games to Detroit. In Quenneville's 78 regular-season games as Blackhawks head coach, the team compiled a record of 45-22-11 and earned the conference's fourth seed in the 2009 Stanley Cup Playoffs.

Quenneville has been a proven winner throughout his career, registering a .597 regular-season winning percentage (483-305-129) in parts of 12 years as a head coach in the NHL, including seven full seasons with the St. Louis Blues (1996-2004) and three with the Colorado Avalanche (2005-08). The Windsor, Ontario native has guided ten of his 12 teams to the postseason, which includes reaching at least the second round on seven occasions.

One of only three men in the history of the NHL to have played in and coached 800 or more games, Quenneville has notched at least 40 wins in eight of his nine full seasons as a head coach, which includes a career-best 51 victories – and 113 points – in 1999-2000 with St. Louis when the team captured the President's Trophy for the league's best record. He is the winningest coach in Blues history, having compiled a 307-191-95 record at that post. Quenneville was awarded the 2000 Jack Adams Trophy as the league's top coach and also served as the head coach of the North American All-Stars at the 2001 NHL All-Star Game.

Quenneville was drafted by the Toronto Maple Leafs in the first round (21st overall) of the 1978 NHL Entry Draft. He spent 13 seasons as an NHL defenseman, netting 54 goals, 136 assists, 190 points and 705 penalty minutes in 803 career games with the Toronto Maple Leafs (1979-80), Colorado Rockies (1980-82), New Jersey Devils (1982-83), Hartford Whalers (1983-90) and Washington Capitals (1990-91).

He retired as an active player after the 1991-92 season, when he served as a player-coach for the American Hockey League's St. John's Maple Leafs. Quenneville broke into coaching with the AHL's Springfield Indians before serving as an assistant coach for the Quebec Nordiques/Colorado Avalanche organization for two and a half seasons. He helped Colorado capture the 1996 Stanley Cup in that position before accepting his first NHL head coaching job with St. Louis for the 1996-97 campaign.

Quenneville and his wife, Elizabeth, have three children: Dylan, Lily and Anna.

2009 NHL ALL-STAR GAME

Not only did the Blackhawks' trip to the 2009 NHL All-Star Game expose the team's budding stars to some of the league's elite players, but the five Blackhawks who represented their team in Montreal also heralded the rebirth of Chicago hockey to the rest of the league.

For the first time since fans began voting, three Blackhawks players were named starters on the 2009 Western Conference All-Star team: Brian Campbell, Jonathan Toews and Patrick Kane – who led all vote-getters in the conference – and all three participated in the SuperSkills Competition. In addition, Kris Versteeg and Dave Bolland represented the Hawks in the annual YoungStars game.

The Blackhawks players showed the All-Star Game's worldwide audience what they could do: Kane and Toews each netted a goal during the West's 12-11 shootout loss and Brian Campbell tallied an assist.

2009 NHL WINTER CLASSIC

It was a New Year's Day to remember as the Blackhawks met the Detroit Red Wings inside the Frozen Confines of Wrigley Field for the NHL Winter Classic 2009. The game-time temperature hovered around freezing and a brisk wind was blowing through the venerable stadium, but the 40,818 fans who witnessed it forgot the cold in favor of celebrating hockey.

Though the Blackhawks lost the contest 6-4 to their Central Division rival, the game was a resounding success. The game had the largest television viewership for a regular-season NHL game since 1975 and was the talk of the sporting world in the weeks and months before and after the event.

Most importantly, both the players and fans in attendance had an unforgettable time.

"It was a cool feeling seeing 40,000 fans screaming and yelling," Patrick Kane said. "The atmosphere was really unreal."

2008-09 SEASON HIGHLIGHT

Kris Versteeg notched the first goal of the 2008-09 season at Washington on Oct. 11.

CHICAGO STADIUM HISTORY

Opened on March 28, 1929, the Chicago Stadium served host to numerous sporting events, concerts and political conventions. Built at a cost of $7 million, the Madhouse on Madison served as the home of the Chicago Bulls (1967-1994) and the Chicago Blackhawks (1929-1994) through the end of their respective seasons in 1994.

Over the years, the Stadium played host to the NBA, the NHL, the NASL and MISL, and even the NFL. On Dec. 15, 1930, the Chicago Bears and the St. Louis Cardinals played the NFL's first indoor football game on an 80-yard field. The game, played as an exhibition contest that the Bears won 9-7, served as a charity game to aid those affected by the Great Depression. Just over two years later, on Dec. 18, 1932, the Bears returned to play the Portsmouth (Ohio) Spartans in the 1932 NFL Championship Game. In front of 11,198 fans, Bronko Nagurski found Red Grange on a two-yard touchdown pass to help lead the Bears to a 9-0 win and claim the NFL Championship.

For 65 years, the Chicago Blackhawks called historic Chicago Stadium home. After playing their inaugural season at International Amphitheatre in 1966-67, the Chicago Bulls moved to the west side in the fall of 1967. Between the two teams, the Stadium hosted 10 Stanley Cup Finals and three NBA Finals. The Stadium, which was located at 1800 W. Madison Street, was demolished in February of 1995.

ALL-STAR GAMES IN CHICAGO

2ND NHL ALL-STAR GAME, NOVEMBER 3, 1948

NHL ALL-STARS 3, TORONTO MAPLE LEAFS 1

The 2nd Annual NHL All-Star Game was a preseason match-up between the reigning champion Toronto Maple Leafs and the NHL All-Stars, which included three Blackhawks (Doug Bentley, Bud Poile and Gaye Stewart). 19-year-old Gordie Howe made the first of his 23 All-Star Game appearances in the game and received a major penalty for fighting.

DID YOU KNOW? Max Bentley, whom the Blackhawks traded to Toronto the year before, returned to Chicago as a member of the Maple Leafs. With the defeat, it was the first time Bentley departed Chicago with a loss as a member of the Leafs.

15TH NHL ALL-STAR GAME, OCTOBER 7, 1961

NHL ALL-STARS 3, CHICAGO BLACKHAWKS 1

Having won the 1961 Stanley Cup, Chicago was pitted against the NHL All-Stars led by Gordie Howe and Alex Delvecchio, who each registered a goal and an assist in the game. Eric Nesterenko tallied the lone Chicago goal in the loss.

DID YOU KNOW? Though he was part of the Stanley Cup championship team, Stan Mikita did not dress for the Blackhawks in the All-Star Game.

27TH NHL ALL-STAR GAME, JANUARY 29, 1974

WEST DIVISION ALL-STARS 6, EAST DIVISION ALL-STARS 4

With six players in the game, the Blackhawks led all teams in All-Star Game participants. A capacity crowd packed the old Chicago Stadium as Blackhawks goalie Tony Esposito earned the win in the West's come-from-behind victory.

DID YOU KNOW? At their request, Pit Martin, Dennis Hull and Jim Pappin – the members of the Blackhawks' famed MPH Line – were introduced as a line rather than individuals during pre-game introductions.

42ND NHL ALL-STAR GAME, JANUARY 19, 1991

CAMPBELL CONFERENCE 11, WALES CONFERENCE 5

Blackhawks defenseman Chris Chelios netted a goal, but St. Louis' Adam Oates (1 goal, 4 assists) and Toronto's Vincent Damphousse (4 goals) stole the show for the victorious Campbell Conference All-Stars.

DID YOU KNOW? The most famous National Anthem in Chicago Stadium history was sung before the contest. Anthem singer Wayne Messmer's vocals were nearly drowned out by the 18,472 cheering fans who were showing their support for the troops in Operation Desert Storm, which began three days earlier.

DID YOU KNOW?

Tony Esposito led the Blackhawks to a perfect 14-0 record in games decided by a shutout during the 1971-72 season.

Espo Excels With Zeroes

Tony O Proves He's Blankety Blank Good Goal Tender

by Oliver Rickers

If you were to explain that Tony Esposito set a record with 15 shutouts during the season, some people would naturally assume that he achieved up exactly on the so-called soft touches in the expansion division.

Well, here's the way Tony O got his 15 blip 0's. Montreal twice: 5-0 and 1-0. Toronto twice: 5-0 and 4-0. Detroit twice: 1-0 and 1-0. Boston twice: 1-0 and 5-0. Los Angeles: 6-0. St. Louis 4-0 and 1-0. Philadelphia: 6-0. Oakland: 4-0 and Pittsburgh: 3-0 and 5-0.

That's right, two each from Montreal, Detroit, Boston and Toronto for eight against the tough East teams. The other seven in the West division. Only names that escaped the blankety blank Tony O were: New York and Minnesota.

Four Were 1-0

But more important, look at those 1-0 games. Tony zeroed in on four 1-0 games against St. Louis, Detroit, Montreal and Boston. Plus that famous 5-0 game with Boston and you have nine points that Tony O accounted for almost singlehanded.

with? St. Louis, No. 1 in the West, Boston, 1st place, Montreal, Detroit; all teams the Hawks had to beat to make the playoffs.

15 Games with One Goal

Besides the 15 shutouts, the Hawks played 15 games in which the opponents got only one goal. Tony played in 59 of those with Denis Dejordy and Gerry Desjardins playing the others. So, it wouldn't be hard to conceive of another seven shutouts in the record books.

Tony O scored back to back shutouts three different times during the season. First he Tony O stopped Boston twice and the only other time the Bruins were blanked was by Eddie Giacomin 5-0 back on Nov. 26.

Six of the 15 shutouts registered by Tony O were on the road.

Possibly the tip off on the kind of year it would be was the Oct. 25 shutout 5-0 over Montreal. It was the first victory of the year for the Black Hawks who had lost five and tied one before finally winning. It also was a major story that they were able to shutout the great Montrealers.

As it turned out it was only one of 15 shutouts for Tony O, and it was only one of the many times the famous Canadiens were beaten.

RECORD OF TONY (O) ESPOSITO 1969-70

Oct. 25 at Montreal—5-0.
Nov. 2, Toronto—5-0.
Nov. 16, Montreal—1-0.
Nov. 19, Los Angeles—6-0.
Dec. 13 at Oakland—4-0.
Dec. 21, St. Louis—4-0.
Dec. 27 at Pittsburgh—3-0.
Jan. 7, Detroit—1-0.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

Blackhawks right wing Patrick Kane picked a perfect time to record his first career hat trick, as his effort pushed the Blackhawks into the Western Conference Final with a series-clinching 7-5 win over Vancouver May 11, 2009 at the United Center.

"It's about time I got the first hat trick. I've been waiting two years. I guess it can't come in a better game than this," the 20-year-old Kane said.

In the thunderous United Center, the Blackhawks rallied from a one-goal deficit twice in the third period and put up four scores against Vancouver goalie Roberto Luongo to win the series 4-2.

ICEHOGS COACHING STAFF

BILL PETERS
HEAD COACH

Bill Peters enters his second season as the Rockford IceHogs' head coach after being named the eighth head coach in franchise history on August 1, 2008.

In his first professional coaching season, Peters continued the Blackhawks organization's institutional success as the IceHogs posted another 40-win season and earned a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs for the second straight year.

Prior to joining the IceHogs, Peters achieved great success at the junior hockey level. Peters spent three years as the bench boss for the Western Hockey League's Spokane Chiefs, leading the team to the 2008 Memorial Cup Championship, the highest award for a team in Canadian junior hockey. That season, Spokane tied a franchise record with 50 wins and set another franchise mark with 107 points.

In his three seasons with as Chiefs head coach, Peters finished third on the franchise's all-time coaching list with 111 wins in just 216 games. Under his leadership, the Chiefs improved in wins and points each season, including a 14-win and 27-point jump between 2006-07 and 2007-08.

In July 2008, the 43-year-old was named the head coach of the Under-18 Canadian National Team, leading Canada's sweep of the 2008 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament. Canada beat Russia 6-3 on Aug. 16, 2008 in the Gold Medal Game after outscoring their opponents 19-8 in the primary round.

The Three Hills, Alberta native started his hockey operations career as a scout with the Spokane Chiefs before joining the Chiefs' coaching staff before the 1999-2000 season under then-head coach Mike Babcock. After three years with the University of Lethbridge (2002-05), Peters returned to Spokane as head coach.

Peters and his wife, Denise, have two children, Aleze and Ayden.

TED DENT
ASSISTANT COACH

Ted Dent enters his third season with the Rockford IceHogs and his fourth as the assistant coach for the Blackhawks' AHL Affiliate. Working alongside head coaches Mike Haviland and Bill Peters in Norfolk and Rockford, Dent was instrumental in developing 23 players who graduated to the NHL from Rockford over the past two seasons. Since Dent joined the Blackhawks organization, Chicago's AHL affiliates have compiled a record of 134-82-10-14 and qualified for the Calder Cup Playoffs every season.

Prior to joining the organization, Dent held several other positions in various levels of professional hockey. Dent worked with the Washington Capitals as the team's video coordinator (1999-2004), preparing and breaking down video for upcoming contests. Dent served as the assistant coach of the ECHL's Trenton Titans (2004-05) before being named head coach of the league's Columbia Inferno (2005-06).

The Toronto native played professional hockey for parts of four seasons (1992-95, '96-97). During the 1993-94 season – his best campaign – the centerman tallied 84 points (30 goals and 54 assists) in 67 games with the ECHL's Johnstown Chiefs. In 194 career professional contests, Dent registered 198 total points (69 goals, 129 assists).

Dent played college hockey at St. Lawrence University, graduating with a B.S. in Sports Management in 1992. During his time at St. Lawrence, the Saints won the two ECAC Championships (1989 and 1992), advancing to the NCAA Tournament both times.

Dent and his wife, Katherine, have three children; Dylan, Morgan and Paige and reside in Roscoe.

2009-10 SCHEDULING

The NHL's 30 member clubs will each play a total of 82 games, 41 at home and 41 on the road. The NHL has a two conference, six-division setup. The schedule is broken down as follows:

• Each club will play six games against divisional opponents. Each club plays four games against clubs in the other divisions of their conference and plays each non-conference opponent at least once and three non-conference opponents twice.

2010 PLAYOFF FORMAT

Sixteen (16) of the 30 teams will qualify for the Stanley Cup Playoffs. The first place team in each division will qualify for the playoffs (6 teams, 3 from each conference) as well as the next five best teams in each conference. The three division winners in each conference will be seeded first through third (in order of points) for the playoffs and the next five best teams, in order of points, will be seeded fourth through eighth. Teams will be reseeded at the start of each subsequent round.

In each conference, #1 will play #8; #2 vs. #7, #3 vs. #6 and #4 vs. #5 in the best of-seven Conference Quarterfinals. The Conference Semifinals, Conference Finals and Stanley Cup Finals will also remain best-of-seven series.

CREDENTIALS

The only credentials that will be honored by the United Center and the Chicago Blackhawks are those issued by the NHL or the Blackhawks themselves. We will grant working media credentials for media to cover all practices and games provided the request is made on company letterhead by an accredited news outlet's sports director or editor no later than the end of the last business day before the game or practice (by 5:00 P.M. on Friday for a weekend or Monday game). Each credential will admit its bearer access to the United Center, the press work room, both team locker rooms (per NHL guidelines) and the press box. All single game media credentials can be picked up the day of the game at Gate 3 ½ on the northeast corner of the United Center after providing government or media outlet identification. Complimentary parking is also provided for all credentialed media in Lot E on the north side of Madison Street.

Credentials must be visibly worn at all times while inside the United Center to assure proper access to designated areas. All credentials are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from the United Center and the forfeiture of the credential and future credential privileges.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photo credentials are available on a game-by-game basis only by contacting a member of the Blackhawks Media Relations staff at least 48 hours prior to the scheduled start of a game. All photographers must shoot from designated areas assigned by the Blackhawks team photographer one hour prior to the start of each home game.

PRE-GAME MEDIA ACCESS

In accordance with NHL guidelines, Blackhawks players and coaches will be available to credentialed media for a 30-minute window prior to every game, which begins two hours prior to game time. For example, pre-game media access would be from 5:30 to 6:00 P.M. for a 7:30 P.M. start. Media members who wish to utilize this pre-game access window are strongly encouraged to notify the Blackhawks Media Relations Department in advance with their requests to guarantee player and coach availability.

PRESS WORK ROOM

The press work room is located on the service level in the northwest corner of the United Center. Only working media with valid credentials will be permitted into the press work room. The work area is equipped with photography rooms, electrical outlets, phone lines and wireless Internet service (Wi-Fi login information is available at Gate 3 ½).

PRESS BOX

The press box is located on the south side (7th floor) of the United Center and is equipped with electrical outlets, phone lines and wireless Internet service (Wi-Fi login information is available at Gate 3 ½). The press box is reserved for game personnel and members of the working media only.

SERVICES

A pre-game meal will be available in the press work room for a minimal fee. Prior to the game, the media will be provided with press releases, game notes, game programs, lineups and statistics will be available both in the press work room and the press box. In-game scoresheets will be distributed to all media in the press work room and the press box between periods and following the game. Fax service is also provided before, during and after each game upon request.

LOCKER ROOMS

The Chicago Blackhawks locker room is located on the service level (north side) in the talent corridor. The visiting NHL locker room is adjacent to the Blackhawks' locker room.

TELEVISION AND RADIO LIVE SHOTS AND BETWEEN PERIOD INTERVIEWS

All television and radio live shots and between period interview requests must be made no later than at that day's morning skate and are subject to the approval of the Blackhawks.

PRACTICES

Blackhawks practices take place at the United Center and at Johnny's Ice House. Please contact the Blackhawks Media Relations Department to confirm all practice times and locations.

AUTOGRAPHS/PERSONAL CAMERAS

As in accordance with NHL rules, autographs of any kind and personal cameras, including camera phones, are strictly prohibited at any time.

TRAINING CAMP FESTIVAL

2009 TRAINING CAMP FESTIVAL NOTES

- The Blackhawks hosted their second annual "Blackhawks Training Camp Festival" at the United Center on Saturday, September 19. For the second year in a row, fans were treated to a special preview of the upcoming season, including the opportunity to watch two live training camp practices led by the coaching staff.
- Outside the United Center, thousands of fans took part in the "Mad Dash to Madison," a 5K walk/run and a separate 10K inline skate, while almost 500 children and adults participated in a 3-on-3 street hockey tournament in Lot C.
- New this year, 1,000 young fans won the opportunity to get an autograph from a Blackhawks player after the open practice session.
- Held in the United Center's Lot C, the band Spoken Four entertained fans with hours of music while the morning and afternoon also included appearances from Blackhawks alumni, an interactive area, and food and drink
- For the second consecutive year, Chicago Blackhawks Charities held a "stuff the bus" promotion for attendees to donate school supplies to help underprivileged children.

It was the dawn of the Next Ice Age. After 65 years in the historic Chicago Stadium, the Blackhawks moved across Madison Street for the 1994-95 season and into their new home - the United Center.

The Blackhawks' first season in the United Center was certainly a memorable one. Chicago hosted Edmonton on January 25, 1995 in the United Center's inaugural NHL game. Blackhawk forward Joe Murphy scored the first goal in United Center history as the Blackhawks defeated the Oilers 5-1 in the historic game.

That season, the United Center, which has a capacity of 20,500 for hockey (almost 3,000 more than the Stadium) was filled to the rafters almost every time the Hawks took the ice. The Blackhawks set an NHL record by averaging 20,833 fans during the 1994-95 season-becoming the first team in NHL history to record an average of 20,000+ fans for one season.

During the second season of action at the UC, the Blackhawks set another NHL attendance record, becoming the first team in league history to average 20,000+ fans for an entire 41-game regular season. Chicago averaged 20,415 fans per game as 837,021 fans came to watch their Blackhawks.

The Blackhawks continued to set attendance records during their third season at the United Center as a team record 22,819 packed the UC for a matinee against Wayne Gretzky and the New York Rangers on February 15, 1997. Blackhawk hockey at the UC has provided many exciting moments on the ice, but those have been almost equaled by the experience of visiting the United Center.

The United Center features the ultimate in fan entertainment and comfort. Some of the amenities include: an HD video replay scoreboard, 360 degree LED boards on two levels, theatre-style seats, 191 Executive Suites which includes two Super Suites and the Bud Light Legends Lounge, over 3,000 Club seats, 46 permanent concession stands and 194 points of sale, two members only restaurants; The Chicago Stadium Club on the Lexus Club Level and the Ketel One Club, as well as the Bud Select Brew Pub, Iron Works Grill and the Jose Cuervo Cantina, private banquet facilities, interactive concourse displays, TV monitors throughout the building, Fandemonium (a Blackhawks and Bulls souvenir store) and 11 other merchandise stands.

The United Center also contains the best in fan convenience and accessibility. There are eight escalators and extra wide concourses for better mobility. ATM's are available on all public levels and a coat check service available for our exclusive 200 level Lexus Club members. There are 48 restrooms and an increased capacity for women's restrooms. Seating is unobstructed throughout the arena.

The United Center is a 960,000 square foot multi-use facility that was officially opened on August 18, 1994 with a ribbon cutting ceremony. The UC accommodates 20,500 for hockey, 21,500 for basketball, and up to 23,500 for concerts and other entertainment. The United Center was also home to the 1996 Democratic National Convention.
